

Kilpatrick Stockton's Paul Aguggia: Featured Speaker at National Association of Corporate Directors Meeting

WASHINGTON, DC (March 4) – Kilpatrick Stockton announced today that Paul Aguggia, Chair of the firm's Banking and Financial Institutions Team, will be the featured speaker at the Atlanta Chapter of the National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD) presentation: The Changing Face of Corporate Governance for Financial Institutions. The presentation will take place at the Buckhead Club in Atlanta on March 17.

As an experienced corporate attorney, who provides strategic advice and counsel to numerous financial institutions, Mr. Aguggia will present lessons learned from the unprecedented challenges faced in the financial sector. He will also address systemic risks identified as a result of the crises, including the concept of “too big to fail.”
